The American Journal of Physics is devoted to the educational and cultural aspects of physics. The Journal was established in 1933 and from 1933 to 1940 it carried the title The American Physics Teacher. The Journal is published by the AAPT through the AIP Publishing LLC (Suite 1N01, 2 Huntington Quadrangle, Melville, NY 11747-4502), which is an association of ten professional societies (including the AAPT) representing major areas of physics.

Manuscripts to be considered for publication and referee reports should be submitted to the Editor electronically using web forms available at the American Journal of Physics web site <http://ajp.dickinson.edu>. Submission of a manuscript is a representation that it has not been published previously nor is currently submitted for publication elsewhere. If the manuscript is accepted for publication, a signed statement must be submitted to the AIP Publishing LLC, Office of Rights and Permissions, Suite 1N01, 2 Huntington Quadrangle, Melville, NY 11747-4502, transferring copyright to the AAPT; the appropriate form will be supplied at the time of acceptance.

Manuscripts must be prepared in accordance with the general requirements that are summarized in the Information for Contributors, available at <http://ajp.dickinson.edu>.

Proofs and correspondence concerning papers in the process of being printed should be addressed to the Editorial Supervisor, AJP, AIP Publishing LLC, Suite 1N01, 2 Huntington Quadrangle, Melville, NY 11747-4502. Reference must be made to title, authors, journal, and scheduled date of issue. A limited number of alterations in proof are unavoidable, but the cost of making extensive alterations after the article has been set in type will be charged to the author.

Claims: Claims for missing issues must be filed within 30 days for journals mailed to addresses in the United States. Claims for missing issues mailed to all other countries must be filed within 60 days. AAPT reserves the right to review multiple claims. There will be a fee for replacement of issues outside of the claim period. To report a missing issue or request a replacement copy, contact subs@aip.org.

Copying: Single copies of individual articles may be made for private use or research. Authorization is given to copy articles beyond the free use permitted under Sections 107 and 108 of the U.S. Copyright Law, provided that the copying fee of $30.00 per copy per article is paid to the Copyright Clearance Center, 222 Rosewood Drive, Danvers, MA 01923, USA, www.copyright.com. (Note: The ISSN for this journal is 0002-9505.)

Authorization does not extend to systematic or multiple reproduction, to copying for promotional purposes, to electronic storage or distribution, or to republication in any form. In all such cases, specific written permission from AAPT must be obtained.

Permission for Other Use: Permission is granted to quote from the journal with the customary acknowledgment of the source. To reprint a figure, table, or other excerpt requires the consent of one of the authors and notification to AAPT.

Requests for Permission: Address requests to AIP Publishing Office of Rights and Permissions, Suite 1N01, 2 Huntington Quadrangle, Melville, NY 11747-4502; Fax: 516-576-2450; Telephone: 516-576-2268; E-mail: rights@aip.org.
